

is pleased to announce their
Sixth Annual "Art at the Lake" Workshop

"Build it up" with Jacqueline Anderson

Ever wanted to get away and just do something wild and new? Tackle a different project, learn new techniques, experiment with them and be able to show some results from your efforts? Get a little outside your box? This is the opportunity for you and your art! Sign up for the retreat from September 20th – 22nd 2013.

Our guest artist, instructor and guide will be Jacqueline Anderson, a former board member of the RRWS and famed teacher. Jacqueline is a graduate of Minnesota State University Moorhead. She is a retired Fargo Public Schools' Art teacher with 27 years of teaching Art at Ben Franklin Jr. High and North High School. She is currently employed as a Supervisor of Student Teachers for MSUM and works at special events for Talent Productions of Fargo, as a caricature artist.

Jackie has taught, taken lessons, and painted around the Upper Midwest, Europe, and Scandinavia and enjoys sharing what she learns with others. She is an ardent supporter of new artists and is delighted to have an opportunity to offer a workshop for RRWS members and friends with a focus on learning and developing skills in a non-threatening, fun, creative and productive manner.

The weekend is broken into three mini-workshops with time off and out of class for painting en plein aire, in the woods or around the Retreat Centre or taking in the Art Leap – a studio crawl for local artists and an annual highlight around Park Rapids.

We are going to learn hand clay building using simple tools. This is not a pinch pot class but an opportunity to learn 3 different techniques and make 3 large projects – think big! A big hunk of clay and bisque firing at the Plains Art Museum is included in the price. The equipment list will be just the bare necessities (sheet pan, knife, spoons, forks, apron, fun attitude, etc) and we will use them in different and challenging ways.

Northern Pines is a beautiful 90 mile drive from Fargo. Situated on the Fish Hook Lake, it provides a quiet sanctuary of pleasant scenery and sights. The fall colors should be raging, as we head out for 2 nights and 3 days of painting pleasure.

Most meals are provided – Friday night, bring a bag supper to enjoy before our first workshop session begins. Hiking, eagle watching, walks, boating, and lovely scenery will be ours to enjoy – when we are not enjoying the vitality and creativity of Jackie!

Accommodation is shared in the newly remodeled lodge building. Bring your own bedding. For those wanting to visit local hotels or B&B's and not stay at Northern Pines, you can participate in our workshop and enjoy meals with us – a new pricing option is being offered this year.

We need 12 registrations for this workshop to be held. Registrations will be taken on a first paid basis. Preference is given to RRWS members. Registrations from non-RRWS members will be confirmed after July 1st in the order they were received. Refunds will be paid if we do not have sufficient registrations. Registration fees are not refundable unless we can fill your place with someone from the waiting list.

The fee for the weekend includes the following: Shared accommodation in a rustic cabin (please specify cabin mates on the Registration form), all meals on Saturday, a Sunday brunch buffet, and the main artist workshops. On Friday night, bring a bag supper to enjoy before our first workshop session begins. Bring your own bedding and towels or rent bedding from camp for a fee.

* BROUGHT BACK AGAIN  Extra Friday or Saturday Afternoon Workshop Choice

An option is to come out earlier on Friday afternoon and join one of our 2 esteemed artists for a 2 hour workshop on a specific topic.

Sandy Miles will do a mini workshop on pumpkins and scarecrows Saturday evening.

Anne Kaese will teach a book making mini class on Friday afternoon for those who want an early start to the weekend. This will be a folded Squash book – a portable and versatile book perfect for journaling and small paintings.

The cost of each mini-workshop is an additional $20 and they will run from 3:00pm to 5:00pm on Friday and the same time on Saturday. You can only pick 1 on each day and the class size is limited to 5 people each. Classes will be allocated on a first paid basis. Please indicate which workshop you would prefer on your registration form.

We are excited to be able to offer this opportunity for other RRWS members to showcase their talents and for our weekend attendees to have an opportunity to learn a little something different.
